

Delivering pensions in a high inflationary, unstable and challenging environment

The LGC Investment & Pensions Summit 2022 is the perfect place to gather and re-connect with your peers to discuss the various difficult challenges currently facing the LGPS.

Why Attend

Attending the event will enable you to:

Benefit from high-level investment knowledge from prominent experts across the LGPS, who'll ensure you have the latest intelligence for your organisation.

Contribute to the networking sessions to sense-check your thinking and inform your investment strategy

Take advantage of our easy to access platform so you can plan your attendance at the event and arrange meetings with more delegates before, during and after the event

Use this dedicated time to focus on your investment strategy and share your challenges with your peers and fund managers

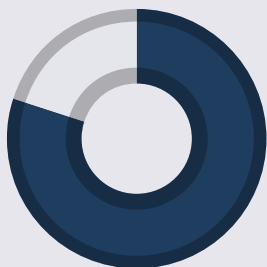

Targeted networking enabling you to catch up with relevant contacts from organisations throughout the LGPS in England, Wales and Scotland

“

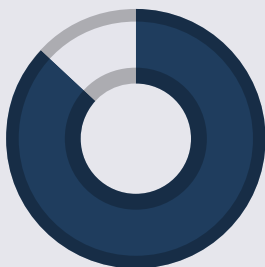

It was a super event, a great attendee list and very well organised. ”

In 2021...

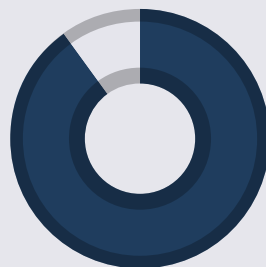

80%

of speakers scored excellent or good

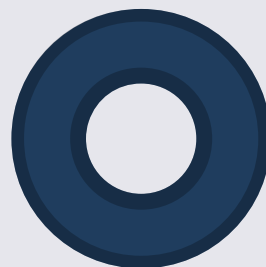

87%

of attendees gave the event 7 or more out of 10

90%

thought the event was a valuable use of time

100%

of attendees achieved or partially achieved their main objective at the event

Speakers

Top 10 latest speakers confirmed:

Chandra Gopinathan
Senior Investment Manager
Railpen

Steve Lomas
Co-Head of Banking
UK Infrastructure Bank

Helen Price
Head of Stewardship
Brunel Pension Partnership

James Ashley
Managing Director, International
Strategic Advisory Solutions team
Goldman Sachs Asset Management

Rodney Barton
Director
West Yorkshire Pension Fund

Joanne Donnelly
Head of Pensions
LGA

Mark Lyon
Deputy Chief Investment Officer
Border to Coast Pensions Partnership

Paul Johnson
Director
Institute for Fiscal Studies

Dawn Turner
independent adviser
and non-executive
London Borough of Merton

Rob Chapman
Chair of the Pensions Committee
London Borough of Hackney

Rising Star Awards 2022

We are once again opening the LGC Investment Rising Star Awards for entries!

For 2022 we have three enterable categories:

Rising Star:
Council Pension Fund Officers

Rising Star: LGPS Pool Officers and officers from national bodies

Rising Star:
Committee or Board Member

The LGC Investment Rising Stars seek to recognise and identify the rising stars within the LGPS. This will assist with talent spotting and succession planning therefore developing the managerial and political leaders of tomorrow. The stars are making change happen, taking difficult decisions and asking important questions.

See more information below, or click here to start your entry.

Deadline for Submissions: Friday 19 August

How to enter

Entering is simple, and you can do so with just a few hundred words (limit 1,000). Use the form linked below to write or upload your entry. You may also submit supporting evidence. You may submit a nomination for yourself, or for a colleague. Shortlisted entrants will be invited to attend the physical conference event as a guest of LGC. Winners will be announced during the event's Gala Dinner on 08 September, in Leeds.

Nomination Form

You may submit as many nominations as you wish. Good luck!

Booking

“

This is one of the best LGPS conferences. There are always good speakers and topics, the events are well organised, with a good balance of funds and investment manager in a lovely setting.”

Public sector

To be in the room with your peers from across the LGPS community please contact:

Kieran McDougall

Private sector

There are limited delegate places available for consultants, actuaries, lawyers. For more details please contact:

Kieran McDougall

Sponsorship Opportunities

We have limited access to the event for asset managers via exclusive sponsorship opportunities only. For details on contributing to this important physical event please contact:

Andrew Porter

Headline sponsor:

Premier sponsors:

Sponsors:

Investment & Pensions Summit

8-9 September 2022 | Royal Armouries and New Dock Hall, Leeds

